Acting State Secretary Pleasants Says It Is Most Active In State

DIRECTORS MEET

Reports Submitted on Various Activities of Local Organization—Secretary Pleasants Addresses Board

The Alexandria Young Men's Christian Association is one of the most active in the state according to Acting State Secretary J. E. Pleasants, of Richmond, who addressed the board of directors of the local Association at the Chamber of Commerce last night. Mr. Pleasants' visit was of an official nature and he listened with in tense interest to the various reports as they were given.

The report of the general secretary was especially interesting and Mr. Pleasants requested that a copy of it be sent to he state office. The report shows a vast amount of work done which reflects the association's ambition to serve the whole community. Conspicuous among the activities was the work for boys which is progressing rapidly. In addition to the weekly meeting of the various troops, a regular gymnasium class is now held weekly for the boys at the Young Peoples' Building.

Hikes and tramps are also a part of the program for boys and these generally take an educational turn although they are planned largely for recreation. Educational talks are given the boys at the special weekly meeting and devotional exercises are always a part of the meeting.

Sunday School League

Ball Players Will Meet Tomorrow Night at Chamber of Commerce

There will be a meeting of the Sunday School Baseball League at the chamber of commerce tomorrow, (Thursday) evening, at 8 o'clock. The oragnization has a number of important matters to complete before the opening of the league season May 17.

The registration blanks of the league are now in the hands of the printer and the schedule is being drawn up and will be ready to announce at the meeting tomorrow night. Elaborate arrangements are being made for the opening game and probably no base ball season will ever have had such an excellent send off. An old player has just called attention to the fact that the opening date selected by the league is precisely the same as that selected in 1912 for the opening of the first Sunday School league ever organized in Alexandria.

The Academy Festival

Indoor Affair Attracts Large Throng

A large crowd attended the Academy festival last evening despite the heavy downpour of rain. Supper was served from 6 o'clock on and the menu was especially tempting, and the service especially good. The suppers will be served again tonight, and will be given at the usual price fifty cents per plate. The Columbian Players, under the direction of Norris Roland will give a free minstrel and vaudeville sketch this evening as a part of the concluding feature of the festival's program. In all, the patronage that the Alexandria people have given the festival has exceeded even the expectations of the committees who have worked so zealously during the past two months, and it is expected that as tonight will be the final night of the affair an unusually large crowd will be in attendance to witness the final drawings on the numerous objects to be disposed of this evening.

Plot Of Play Given

"Springtime" To Be Presented May 12-13

The plot of "Springtime" which is to be presented at the opera house on May 12 and 13, under the auspices of the board of managers of the Alexandria Hospital, for the benefit of that institution, is a most enjoyable one.

The idea of the play is handled in a very original manner. The first scene is in an old garden near New York in May, 1920. The occasion is the celebration of Priscilla Dean's birthday, with a Mardi' Gras party. Her friends, Desiree, Miss Mary Hunt Roberts, Joyce, Miss Margaret Paff, and Sue, Miss Ruth Le Hew ask Mrs. Elkins Miss Julia Duncan, to tell them the story of the romance of the Brewsters and Wainwrights.

As Mrs. Elkins starts to speak the lights are slowly dimmed, as she finishes her story the stage is completely darkened. A second later the light comes on and action on the play continues with a scene in the same garden in 1863.

In this scene, Mr. Jack Pohl will appear as James Brewster, founder of the famous "Brewster Pills." Thankful Standish, his sister, will be portraved by Miss Mary Ellen Nalls. The part of Priscilla Brewster, his daughter, will be taken by Miss Evelyn Howard. Miss Eugenia Griffith will handle the role of Primrose Standish, daughter of Thankful Everett James will play Tom Higgues, of Boston. The part of Jack Wainwright will be in the hands of Allen Roberts, and A. J. Rhodes will be seen as Bobby Brewster, a lion with the ladies. Elvira Judd will be Miss Louisa Griffith and Miss Abbie Hoxton is cast as Abigail Tompkins, while Zenobia is Miss Nina Fulton.

In the second act, which is in 1888, little Priscilla, daughter of Priscilla Brewster, will be played by Miss Margaret Ogden. Vera Riggs by Miss Edwina Carver, and Daisy by Miss Margaret Eggborn, Master Jack Wainwright, son of Wizard Jack Wainwright, is Master Billy Rodier. Parsons, Bobby's man, will be played by Milton Stonnell.

Tickets are now on sale by members of the cast, and are being reserevd at Warfield's drug store.

HURLS CHALLENGE AT A. T. ANSELL

Veteran Lawyer Dares Other to Personal Encounter

CLASH ON TESTIMONY

Argument Over Bergdoll Case—Former N. J. Attorney General Brands Statement as Untrue.

Washington, May 4.—John W. Wescott, former Attorney-General of New Jersey, today passed the lie direct to Samuel T. Ansell, former acting Judge Advocate-General of the Army and challenged him to repeat his testimony outside the room where a House committee was investigating the escape of Grover Cleveland Bergdoll, Philadelphia draft dodger.

Ansell had just reiterated under oath that Judge Wescott had been engaged as asscciate counsel to help get Bergdoll out of prison after he had evaded the draft for nearly two years.

Judge Wescott, 72 years old, but broad of shoulder and at least six feet tall, with a shock of snow white hair leaped to his feet, his eyes flashing fire.

"I want to tell the witness to his teeth that he knows what he says is not true. He hasn't the courage—physical, moral or mental—to follow me outside this committee room, regardless of my age, and make such a statement to my face," he declared.

Mr. Ansell protested that if there was to be a debate he should be allowed to take part.

Scenting the possibility of a clash Chairman Peters quickly stepped in, but not until Judge Wescott had fired a few more shots. Then, picking up his hat, he walked out with a smiling "Well, good-by gentlemen."

Previously Judge Wescott had denied that there was a shred of truth in a statement made by the late D. Clarence Gibboney, of Philadelphia, that he had been employed in the Berg doll case and paid $1,250 for his services. Judge Wescott declared he never went to see Secretary of War Baker in Bergdoll's behalf, as Mr. Ansell had testified, and said that he knew nothing whatever of the story of Berg doll's buried gold until he read it in the newspaper after the prisoner's escape. Earlier in the day Mr. Ansell had testified that Judge Wescott, as one of the defense attorneys, had discussed with Gibboney and himself the question of urging the War Department to permit the dodger's release under guard to go out and find it.

The fact was mentioned that the Judge was a warm friend of Secretary Baker and that he was the man who had placed Woodrow Wilson in nomination for President both at the Baltimore and St. Louis conventions. Judge Wescott declared his only part in the case was the sending to Mr. Baker of a letter inclosing the Ansell brief in the Bergdoll appeal, which he regarded as a brilliant document and one which should have the Secretary's personal consideration.

Going back to the tale of the buried gold, Judge Wescott, looking Mr. Ansell squarely in the eye, exclaimed.

"I never heard of it until it came out with the news of Bergdoll's escape. I would suppose that if a man of Mr. Ansell's ability could get that crazy idea in his head, and in view of what happened, he would have left the community."

Deprecating the fact that two men could be at such variance as to the facts and lacking the right of cross-examination, Judge Wescott said he wanted to reiterate in Ansell's presence, "and in his very teeth," that the latter knew when he testified that statements concerning him were untrue. The Judge told the committee Ansell had refused to recognize him in the room, when they were only a few feet apart, which led to much questioning and to the remark by Judge Wescott that the lawyer must have been conscious then of making statements he had no authority to make.

But all doubt as to personal relations between the two was cleared away later by Ansell who said he had refused to see Judge Westcott with Gibboney some time ago and

GERMANS DRAFT NEW PROPOSALS

Offer Said to Approximate 132,000,000,000 Marks

ALLIES' DEMAND

Supreme Council in Full Accord—Total Debt Increased to 6,750,000,000 Pounds to Pay Belgians' Debts

Berlin, May 4.—An extraordinary Cabinet meeting was in session late last night for the purpose of framing a new reparations offer to the Entente It is stated that a much higher offer will be made, which will approximate the 132,000,000,000 gold marks demanded by the Allied Reparations Commission.

London, May 4.—A new German offer to the Allies was telegraphed last night from Berlin to the German Ambassador at Paris for communication to the Reparations Commission, according to a statement ascribed by the London Times to "good authority."

The terms of the offer are not known, but the Times says it is believed they are approximate to acceptance of the Allies' decisions at Paris on January 29.

It is presumed the offer will oe forwarded to London and placed before the Supreme Council today.

The Supreme Council reached a complete agreement yesterday on the substance of the ultimatum to be sent to Germany by the Reparations Commission not later than May 6. The ultimatum expires six days later.

The drafting committee worked last night completing the document, which will be passed finally at another meeting of the Council today and then handed to the Reparations Commission, which has been called from Paris and which will forward the last word of the Allies to the Berlin Cabinet, in accordance with the Treaty of Versailles.

The total sum which Germany will be called upon to pay has been increased to 6,750,000,000 lbs by the inclusion of the sum due Berlin on account of her debts to the Allies.

Under the bonding scheme to guarantee the payment of 100,000,000 pounds annually, plus 25 per cent tax on German exports, 600,000,000 lbs in bonds will be issued when the ultimatum expires or Germany accepts the terms. Bonds to the amount of 1,900,000,000 pounds will oe issued in November. The balance, 4,250,000,000 pounds will be issued in accordance with Germany's capacity to pay, That capacity will be gauged by the product of 25 per cent. on exports.

Besides the 5 per cent. interest on the bonds, an additional 1 per cent. will be imposed on them to form a sinking fund. It is calculated that these bonds will oe redeemed within 37 years from date of issue.

In no case, according to the scheme will Germany be paying more than 5 per cent. interest and 1 per cent. sinking fund on the total debt of 6,750,000,000 pounds. These amounts are to be a charge on German customs or any other revenue that the Reparations Commission is prepared to accept.

The Reparations Commission will receive the bonds and apportion them among the Allies in accordance with the Brussels agreement. Each power will dispose of them or hold them, as it pleases.

At the morning session the Allies reached an agreement regarding the military and naval measures to be taken against Germany. They include the French plans for the occupation of the Ruhr Basin. The plan for a Franco-British naval demonstration was held in abeyance until the views of the American Government was obtained.

Naval control of Bremen,Hamburg and Stettin was envisaged, but without the establishment of an actual blockade.

Drunk On Free Hooch

Court Imposes Substantial Fine Because Spree Was Free

"Where did you get your liquor?" was the interrogation put by Justice Snow in the police court today to a white man arrested last night by Policemen Talbott and Lawrence Padgett. The prisoner replied that it was given him free of charge by a friend. "Well then you had a cheap drunk and you might as well pay the court as you did not pay for the liquor," said the court when it imposed a fine of $15. The only remark of the prisoner was "It is pretty steep judge."

Another white man, arrested by Policemen Lawrence Padgett and Talbot, charged with being drunk, was assessed $10 and a jail sentence of sixty days omitted with the understanding that he was to leave on a fishing trip to be gone several weeks.

A third white man, arrested by Policeman Miller for being drunk, forfeited $5 collateral.

U. S. SPENDS $600,000,000 YEARLY IN SOLDIER'S CARE

Washington, May 4.—Chairman Good, of the House Committee on Appropriations, today stated to the House: "It is unthinkable that the Federal Treasury will be able to stand for many years soldier bonus payments.

"The government is now paying $600,000,000 annually for the care of soldiers. Those who say the government is not providing for its soldiers are grossly misinformed."

ABANDON IDEA OF TOURISTS' CAMP

Adverse Report Submitted By Committee to Auto Bureau

PREPARE LEAFLETS

Will Distribute to Tourists—News Received of Starting of Engineers' Training School at Humphreys

Inability of the special committee of the automobile bureau of the chamber of commerce to find a suitable place for camping for tin can tourists resulted in an advers report by that committee to the auto bureau last night on the establishment of a camp for such tourists passing through Alexandria. The report was unanimously adopted.

Announcement was made that 5,000 leaflets soon will be prinetd to be distributed among visiting automobilists.

These leaflets will contain the points of historic interest in the city, the salient points in the local traffic laws and also other data of interest to visitors and a map of the city. After some minor changes are made regarding the contents they will be printed. These leaflets will be distributed among the members and also given members of the police department. The safety first committee reported a letter being received from Capt. W. H. Sweeney, superintendent of schools, stating that the teachers in the schools would endeavor to see that the pupils be kept out of the streets when they were dismissed from the schools, complaint being made by members of the bureau of the danger of the children walking in the street.

Attention was directed to the need for the enforcement of parking laws on certain parts of Columbus and Alfred streets. John H. Trimyer, who presided, was nominated a director to the annual meeting of the American Automobile Association which will be held in Washington May 16 and 17. Mr. Trimyer is director-chairman of the local bureau.

Complaint was made about the depression of the track of the Washington-Virginia Railway at Alfred and Cameron streets, and the work will be taken up with the railroad

A report was submitted that the training school for the engineers corps will be established at Camp Humphreys the last part of May or early in June and it was stated it will prove of considerable help to the merchants of the city.

The bureau endorsed a resolution favoring the improvement of another street running parallel to King street in order to relieve the congestion of traffic on King street which is the only modern paved street in the city running east and west.

A communication was read from the traffic bureau of the Metropolitan Police Department setting forth that it would not be necessary for Virginians to register with that bureau unless they proposed to remain with their machines in the District more than three days

Abandon Auto

Joy Riders Leave Car When it Crashes Into Tree

A Franklin sport car stolen from a Baltimore physician was abandoned by the joy riders at Hume Spring, north of this city, when the machine crashed into a tree at that place shortly before 1 o'clock this morning. The joy riders deserted the car and all efforts on the part of the police to apprehend the men, said to number four, proved futile. The windshield of the car was smashed and other slight damage received.

The car was recovered by Sergt. Campbell and Policeman Lawrence Padgett, Lunsford, Carlton Padgett and Talbot. Chief of Police C. T. Goods notified the Baltimore police of the recovery of the car and the owner will come here for the car probably tomorrow.

A Strange Vindication. While the ink was yet wet upon the United States Supreme Court decision setting him free from the jail sentence passed upon him by the Federal Courts, Senator Newberry of Michigan rushed into print with the announcement that he was thankful that he and his friends were at last vindicated of the charge of buying the Michigan Senatorship.

And what a strange vindication! The Supreme Court ruled, in brief, that in bestowing upon Congress the right to regulate the time, manner and place of holding Congressional elections, the Constitution did not mean to include the right to regulate primaries; and that therefore since Senator Newberry's conviction followed primary and not election frauds, his case was without the jurisdiction of the law of Congress, the constitution of the United States and the Federal Courts.

Passing over the real significance of the Supreme Court's ruling, which seems to strike a body blow at Federal Corrupt Practice laws for all time, since primaires are equivalent to elections in more than half the states of the country, fair-minded people will feel bound to conclude that whatever satisfaction Senator Newberry and his friends can get out of such a "vindication" they will be richly entitled to. Of course what Senator Newberry is thankful for is not the fact that the decision "vindicates" him but that, what is of far more practical importance, it keeps him out of jail.

Normalcy With a Vengeance. Can it be possible that there are after all a lot of jolts in store for us as we travel the road "back to normalcy?" The Government was "a simple process;" we were to "disentangle ourselves" from a lot of foreign mix-ups which were in reality none of our business; prices were to come down and wages stay up; there was to be the "strictest economy" and "lower taxes;" "efficiency" and "best minds" were to take the place of "waste" and "nincapoops;" in short an end was to be made to all the miserable "wiggle and wobble" of the Democrats and a beginning inaugurated of vigorous, effective Republicanism.

And lo and behold, what do we find? Mr. Harding says one day that we must "engage under the existing treaties" and within two weeks time Mr. Lodge announces that we must make a "separate treaty." The Senate declares peace by resolution while the Secretary of State burns the midnight oil trying to keep out of the European reparations tangle If this is "normalcy" in international relations, the country may well afford to pray to be delivered from "abnormalcy."

And instead of prices coming down and wages staying up, just the reverse is true if anything. Threatened wage cuts have precipitated strikes in 13 of the largest cities of the country involving over 100,000 men and many different trades. The marine strike is just one little example of the fact that the White House oil can of "normalcy" is not to be relied upon altogether in the matter of quieting troubled waters.

Meanwhile the Administration goes ahead with plans to spend a billion dollars on the Army and Navy and abandons any idea of lowering or removing taxes.

It is beginning to dawn upon some of us that if this is the road back to "normalcy," somebody is riding to an early fall.

GARY ANNOUNCES STEEL WAGE CUT

New York, May 4.—A reduction of about 20 per cent in wages for day labor, effective May 16, and an equitable adjustment of other rates, including salaries, at plants of the United States Steel Corporation was announced today by Elbert H. Gary, chairman of the corporation's board of directors. It is estimated that between 150,000 and 175,000 employes of the corporation will be affected by the cut.

Mr. Gary also stated that the corporation had been unable to find a practical basis for the entire abandonment of the 12 hour day, or turn, in the immediate future. He added that the 12-hour shift already had been eliminated in certain departments and that efforts would be continued with the expectation of entirely eliminating this feature within the next year. Mr. Gary expressed the opinion that he did not believe the corporation could satisfy the employes within any shorter limit.

During the average daily wage of employes was $6.96 as against $6.12, in 1919, according to corporation figures. Total salaries and wages disbursed by the steel corporation in 1920, when the total number of employes was 267,000 aggregated $581,556,925.

On the basis of the reduction announced today, corporation officials estimated the average cut in wages at approximately $1.40 per day per man. Roughly, this will effect a reduction in the pay roll, calculated on the present number of employes, of not less than $150,000,000 annually

"Picture Bride" Tests Strength Of Beau's Head

New York, May 4.—The King Alexander of the Greek line docked today with 3,141 passengers from Athens. Forty of them were sent to Hoffman's Island for sanitation purposes.

Among the others were 400 "picture brides"—girls who have come to America to marry men who know them only by their photographs. One of these brides was an Armenian, Marie Zagorian. Her fiance, who had recognzed her after a voyage around the ship in a "bumboat," sent her some carnations when she let down a cord to him. She returned the compliment by tossing him a bottle of cognac, but it bounced off his head and plunged into the deep. He was too dizzy to dive for it.

SEES BRISK BUSINESS IN CLOTHING THIS FALL

Chattanooga, Tenn., May 4.—Optimism and prediction of an early return to normal conditions in the trade was the keynote of the first day's session of the Whole sale Dry goods Association meeting here in annual convention with delegates present from all sections of the country.

A summary of conditions was given by T. L. Anderson, vice president of Anderson Bros., Inc., of Richmond, Va. who spoke on "the business outlook."

He declared that conditions were improving in a slow but continuous manner, and that the worst of the readjustment period had been passed, he added that this period would not be entirely done with until the surplus stocks of high priced merchandise brought over from last season are disposed of which must be done before the opening of the fall season.

"I look for a brisk consumer demand," said Mr. Anderson, "because of the fact that high prices and other causes resulted in the public going on a buyers' strike last year, wearing their old clothes instead of buying new ones. Their wardrobes will have to be replenished this fall After all these surplus stocks have been consumed we can expect brisk trade winds and smooth sailing, which I look for by the spring of 1922."

Danville's Snow Drives Straws Into Seclusion

Danville, Va., May 4.—A light fall of snow which lasted less than fifteen minutes and then turned to drizzling rain, was observed here shortly before 2 o'clock this morning. Policemen in various parts of the city on night beats corroborated that report. The temperature at that time was 56 degrees. Vegetation is being retarded in this section by the continued cold weather. Overcoats have been seen frequently during the past several days and straw hats which made their initial appearance about ten days ago have not been seen lately.

The government thermometer ranged from 56 degrees to 31 during April the two extremes being registered within forty-eight hours.

U. S. NAVY CARD CAUSES FRIGHT

Vienna, May 4.—Rear Admiral Phillip Andrews, commander of the American warships in the Adriatic, caused excitement amounting almost to a panic today when in full uniform and accompanied by his aid, he motored through the town of Neukironen, south of Vienna. His uniform caused him to be mistaken for Admiral Horthy, the Hungarian regent, whom the workers in that socialist frontier district dread as they would the devil. The excitement was transmitted to government circles when a rural police telephoned to the capital, saying that Adimarl Horthy was crossing the frontier into Austria.

Admiral Andrews put an end to the rumors about an impending Hungarian coup d'etat, however, and brought welcome relief to the tension that had arisen when he gave his name to the police and explained that he was on an inspection tour.

THREE STEAMSHIPS LEAVE; FIRST BREAK IN BIG STRIKE

New York, May 4.—Three American steamships, two passenger liners, the other a bulk oil carrier, left here today on scheduled sailings This was the first break here in the nation wide strike of marine workers, called to combat reductions in wage scales.

The ships were the United Fruit Liner Sixaola, with passengers for the West Indies; the transatlantic passenger liner Old North State, whose departure was delayed, until midnight, and the tanker Potomac, of the Standard Oil fleet, for Texas City, Texas. On each ship efforts were made by union representatives to persuade the crews to quit work

Most of the day was taken up with a long detailed statement by Mr. Ansell as to his connection with the Bergdoll case, and of his efforts to get on the trail after the escape Tomorrow he will be cross-examined at length. WHOLESALE GENERAL MERCHANDISE

SPORTS

"Jimmy" Quayle, oen of the best sandlot baseball pechers ever developed in Alexandria, has been invited by President Clark C. Griffith, of the Washington Baseball Club, of the American Baseball League, to practice with the big leaguers, Thursday morning at 10 o'clock.

President Griffith has always been anxious to have an Alexandria lad a member of his team, and if "Jimmy" can deliver the goods in the baseball line, he stands an excellent chance of wearing an American League Baseball uniform and bringing base ball honors to Alexandria. Every body is pulling for him to make good. Many strange things have been done in world series baseball games by players unknown previous thereto. Should any Alexandria base ball player ever prove to be a world series hero, the "whole town" with everything thrown in, would belong to him. There are now at least five sandlot baseball players in Alexandria who stand a good chance of bringing fame to their home town. Let them "watch their step," they are occasioanlly being "lamped over" by a scout who represents certain big league interests. Cut out the knocking with the big sledge, for it is harmful to all concerned, and it is sure to bring disaster to those who use it too often.

Southern Dry Chief Resigns

Washington, D. C., May 4.—The resignation of S. R. Brame, supervising Federal prohibition agent of the Southern department, with headquarters at Richmond, Va., was announced yesterday by Acting Internal Revenue Commissioner West.

Mr. Brame's resignation is effective May 10. He was formerly supervising internal revenue agent at Richmond, and was appointed to his present post on November 1, 1919. The Southern department includes the States of Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, and Kentucky.

PRAISES WORK OF LOCAL Y. M. C. A.

vealed the fact that in four meetings weekly a total of three hundred men were reached, some of the meetings being religious and some for the purpose of giving health talks. The organization of the Sunday School base ball league was reported as a "Y" effort to supply summer recreation for the men who enjoy the American game. It was announced that the league would begin playing the afternoon of the 17th of May, and the board was invited to be present at the opening game.

The report of the educational work was especially gratifying as the extent of the work became evident. Work of an educational nature is now being carried on for men, women, boys and girls, and the field is being extended to include many more branches of education. N. T. MacManaway, of the United Y. M. C. A Schools, is now in the city assisting in establishing the United Schools a little more firmly in Alexandria. The local association has now about a dozen students here and as the schools offer over two hundred different courses it is probably that the list will grow rapidly in this city.

The Secretary's report totaled 13 motion picture shows to an audience of 537; 9 health talks to 297 men; 5 general talks to 615, or a total of 14 talks to an audience of 912. Three hundred men listened to religious shop talks. 6 gymnasium classes were held and the attendance of 130. Under the Ladies' Auxiliary 5 sewing classes were held and 219 future home builders of the city, of ages eight to fifteen, were in attendance. 5 committee meetings were held with an attendance of 82; 17 visits were made the Sunday Schools; one board meeting and one Ladies' Auxiliary meeting were attended and 74 calls made.

During the course of Mr. Pleasants' talk he stated that W. M. Lee, State Secretary of Alabama, had accepted a call to the State Secretaryship of Virginia, to succeed S. A. Ackley, and is expected to take up the work at once. The state committee, of which Judge J. K. M. Norton, of this city is a member, has been in search of a state secretary for some time and this announcement is glad news to association workers throughout the state.

Some important committee work was reported on at the meeting last night and every evidence of important community work was reflected in the reports.

GOODYEAR

LOW-COST MILEAGE

There is no economy in buying so-called bargains in tires offered at sensationally cheap prices, when a well-made tire delivers mileage at a considerably lower cost per mile. Add the time and trouble occasioned by frequent replacements and it is apparent why tire users, seeking real mileage economy, are not attracted to cheaply priced tires.

The popularity of the Goodyear Tires, Tubes and Accessories, we sell, is based on the fact that they consistently deliver exceptional mileage at low cost.

Our Service Station is the place for you to come for low-cost mileage.

KIWANIS CLUB CONVENTION

Cleveland, Ohio, May 4.—The International Kiwanis Club may go on record at its annual convention here June 20-24 endorsing the three big movements designed to bring relief to famine stricken China and countries of the Near East and Europe.

The executive committee of the organization has just sent out bulletins to the 500 Kiwanis Clubs in Canada and the United States, recommending that the individual clubs, located in as many cities, give favorable consideration to the China Famine Fund, European Relief and the Near East Relief. It is likely that the international convention here may make plans for the active support of these three movements. Fully 8,000 delegates and visitors, coming from practically every city of the North American continent, will attend the Cleveland convention

"These three organizations are recognized relief agencies, ministering to the stricken peoples of the world, and they have appealed to International Kiwanis Club for endorsement of their movements," said O. Samuel Cummings, international secretary, in a statement just issued. "A proper investigation shows that these organizations are conducting relief work in such an efficient manner as to merit the unqualified support of Kiwanians and Kiwanis Clubs."

Arrangements have been almost completed for the big Kiwanian gathering in the Fifth City the latter part of June. A round of entertainment for delegates, who will come from Gulf to Lakes and from the Atlantic to the Pacific, as well as from Canada, is being planned. John E. Christian, chairman of the convention entertainment committee, says there will be unlimited amusement and recreation to occupy every minute of the week which is not taken up by business sessions of the convention.

VISITING MASONS TO BE BANQUETED

Washington, D. C., May 4.—seven hundred local and visiting Masons will gather around the banquet board at the Willard Hotel on the evening of May 12 at the farewell event in the five day convention of the National League of Masonic Clubs, according to plans being made by Chairman L. Whiting Estes.

President Harding, Vice President Coolidge and members of the Cabinet will be guests. Assistant Chairman Estes in arrangements are C. Fred Cook, Edgar C. Snider, J. Harry Cunningham, William F. Gude, Henry Hanford, Sam Hart, and Roland S. Robbins. The ladies of the convention will be given an entertainment the same night by the ladies auxiliary of the Lambskin Club at Northeast Temple, Eighth and F streets northeast.

Haywood's Trip 'Joyride Before Jail And Death

New York May 4.—Inside facts of "Big Bill," Haywood's trip to Russia were learned here today.

Eleanor Fitzgerald, who describes herself as a "good friend of Bills," was located in one of Greenwich Village's dens of drama.

"We've been told that you have heard from Haywood since he went to Russia," she was told.

"No, I have not received word, 'Bill' hasn't had a chance to get word to me."

"Do you expect him back?"

"Why, of course; I saw him a couple of days before he sailed. He told me he was going to Russia. He wanted to see the place before he died. He is sick from diabetes, and he told me he would only live a year or two in prison. Someone told him the Superior Court would not hand down his decision for at least sixty days. He expectaed to attend the conferences in Warsaw early in May, and be back in time to go to prison.

"Yes, it was a joyride before prison and death. He called his sentence a 'death sentence,'" she explained rather sadly.

SALVATION ARMY

"Real People:"

That's what the doughboys called the Salvation Army workers when their familiar uniforms loomed up through the mists in the first American sector in France. "The Salvation Army" exclaimed one doughboy, "I believe they'll be waiting for us in hell to try to save us."

"Real People:"

That's what some scores of ex-doughboys from Virginia have called the Salvation Army workers since their return from service, when the Army has assisted them in securing temporary and permanent employment, and it's what Bert Whitcomb, recently discharged from the service, told Commandant Garland, of Richmond, when he had been aided in securing a position as electrician, and in finding a home for his wife and two children whom he was bringing to the Capitol City.

Throughout Virginia, in the nineteen towns and cities where the Army has corps, the workers are known as "Real People" by the hundreds of destitute mothers and fathers, children, babes in arms and "Down-but-not-ousters" generally. The tons of clothing, food and coal given aay each month by the Army, and its efforts to help out by finding lodging, employment and means of bringing families together are not forgotten by these people as might be thought. An incident typical of the "S. A." spirit of service took place recently at the state headquarters of the Army's Advsory Board organization when an inmate of the Richmond poor farm came in and stated that he had an opportunity to secure employment on a farm nearby if he could get sufficient money to pay his railroad fare.

The clerical staff made up a purse for him and he made the trip, securing the position. A week later he came in and thanked them, and once again was heard the expression—"Real People:"

BODY OF WEALTHY WIDOW IN RIVER

New York, May 4.—The body of Mrs. Annette K. Rankine, wealthy widow, who disappeared here on April 1, last night was found floating in New York harbor, near the south Brooklyn shore, Identification of the body was made by Miss Spink, who was Mrs. Rankine's nurse and companion, and Frank Clouting, her chauffeur.

Physicians who viewed the body, declared that a cursory examination failed to disclose any sign of violence. However, three rings, two of them set with diamonds, which she is supposed to have worn on the day of her disappearance, were missing.

Mrs. Rankine as the widow of William Birch Rankine, lawyer and founder of the Niagara Falls Power Company. Following the death of her husband, a few weeks after their marriage, Mrs. Rankine suffered from fainting spells and had since been in ill health.

BRITISH NIP PLOT FOR REVOLUTION

London, May 4.—The alertness of the English authorities today nipped an attempt to send an armed expedition from England to launch a revolution in Venezuela.

The admiralty recently sold the obsolete gunboat Harrier to a group of men representing themselves to be Nicaraguans.

The vessel was taken to Swansea docks for refitting, where it was discovered the real purchasers were [illegible]

GIRL IS DECOYED FROM SCHOOL BY MAN

Berwick, Pa., May 4.—Detectives are searching for Miss Catharine Hoffman, a girl of fifteen, and a charge of the Children's Aid Society, who was called from the school in which she was studying, by a strange man, and who has not been seen since. The man knocked on the school house door and asked to speak to Miss Hoffman. The teacher called her to the door and when she did not return within fifteen minutes began a search for her. No trace whatever could be found of the missing girl.

Though only fifteen, the girl [illegible] taken for two or three years. Her mother, who has been dead since the death of her former husband, and since the girl became a charge of the Children's Aid Society, is near here, and was immediately notified of the girl's disappearance.

Three detectives were secured and immediately began work on the case, but have thus far been unable to gain a clue.

The mother fears her daughter has been kidnaped by white slavers.

ALEXANDRIA MAN GETS SURPRISE

Says Tanlac Restored His Health When it Looked Like His Case Was Simply Hopeless

"Since I have taken Tanlac my wife says I actually look better and stronger than she ever saw me," said F. G. Harris, 118 North Pitt street, Alexandria, Va.

"I had been going down hill for five years and was so weak and run down that in the mornings, if I was even able to get to my work I didn't know whether I could hold out or not. My whole body ached, and at times such sharp pains struck me that I could hardly breathe. I would get so nervous that I often shook and trembled so I couldn't handle the tools of my trade of steam fitter. My stomach was all out or order and my appetite was gone and I ate so little that I was going down in weight. I had severe dizzy spells couldn't rest at night and simply had to grit my teeth and fight to keep going.

"One day my wife read the statement of a Lynchburg lady whose case was just like mine, telling how much Tanlac had helped her. She bought a bottle of Tanlac and said I just must take it. Well, I received the surprise of my life when I began to pick up. I took three bottles of the medicine and they completely restored my health. I got back all my lost weight, and from then until now I have felt as good as a man could want. I eat anything, sleep fine and there is not another man in Alexandria who can put in a bigger day's work than I can."
